

Jack Wells Camp Enterprise Scholarship Fund

Camp Enterprise was adopted at the Rotary Club of Houston through the efforts of Jack Wells in 1986. The first camp was held in 1987 with 48 students and 8 coaching couples, consisting of Rotarians and their wives. Over 20 years later, the legacy has included almost 2,000 campers from all over the Houston area; hundreds of Rotarians and their spouses; Presidents, CEO's and executives who have shared their stories of success and failure, inspiration and motivation, and the importance of dreams based on hard work to achieve personal and professional success.

In 2006, as we celebrated 'standing on the shoulders of giants' throughout the history of Rotary and Camp Enterprise, Jack Wells was energized with the prospect of reconnecting with Alumni from Camp Enterprise. He made the familiar drive to the Piney Woods one more time and talked to the Camp Enterprise '06 campers with childlike joy and enthusiasm. His humor was relaxing and infectious. His message was timeless.

Mr. Jack Wells died in February. Jack was a Rotarian for 45 years. Jack, well known for his eloquent words was working on the bio of our current Camp Enterprise Chair to present to the Rotary Club of Houston. If you think that Jack could not be outdone with his precise and precious words, he could. Jack was outdone by his deeds. His work with the students of Camp Enterprise has created a legacy of success and achievement in thousands of students. Not only the students that attended camp, but also students that were touched by the enthusiasm of those that did. His work with successful business leaders that came to know the good work of Rotary through the work of Camp Enterprise. His work with the Rotarians who dedicated three days or more of their lives to remember and renew their commitment to Rotary ideals as they live through our youth.

The Rotary Club of Houston announced on April 10th, 2008 the Jack Wells Camp Enterprise Scholarship Fund. A $5,000 scholarship, to be used at any university, awarded to the top camper chosen by his/her peers and coaching couples for showing leadership qualities throughout camp (intelligence, initiative, cooperativeness, good judgment, strong ethics, and positive attitude). Two additional scholarships have been formed to include the "Camper of the Year Runner Up" in the amount of $2,000 and a "Service Above Self Scholarship" in the amount of $2,000.
